will be published in the conference proceedings, stored and distributed electronically, in order to meet increasing library, faculty demand and international research communities. By signing this Copyright Form, the Author(s) agrees to the following consent, release and general terms.

The Author's employer may sign this copyright form. The employer may reserve the right to use the paper for internal or promotional purposes.

- If the Author is a Government employee, the Government will grant a non-exclusive licence to publish your paper in the Journal in any medium or form provided that Crown Copyright, user rights and patent rights are reserved.
- The Author has the moral right to be identified as the author wherever the paper is published, and to object to its derogatory treatment or distortion. The i-Society encourages assertion of this right; it represents best publishing practice and is an important safeguard for all authors.
- If the Author is a US Government employee and the work was done in that capacity, the assignment applies only to the extent allowed by US law.
- Other countries Government policy will be applied as to the degree of confidentiality and privacy.

Copyright Transfer

The i-Society will permit the Author to use the paper elsewhere after publication, including posting the final post acceptance manuscript version on the author's personal web pages or in an institutional repository maintained by the institution to which the Author is affiliated, in other works or for the purposes of the Author's teaching and research, provided acknowledgement is given to the i-Society as the original source of publication.

- Every effort will be made to consult the Author if substantive changes are required.
- The Author hereby asserts his/her moral rights to be identified as the Author of the paper.

The Author warrants that the paper is the Author's original work, has not been published before, and is not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere; and that the paper contains no libellous or unlawful statements and that it in no way infringes the rights of others, and that the Author, as the owner of the copyright, is entitled to make this assignment.
